

It's a big job to provide clean bedding each week for guests at the Macomb County Warming Center shelters.

A dedicated crew led by Joanne Piercinski, above, has been helping with the laundry for more than seven years. Her group is joined by volunteers from the host churches.

After the bedding is washed, dried and folded, it's loaded into the trailer for delivery to the next church. Everything is done in a few hours on Sunday morning each week.

Photos by Donna Remer

